

WINNERS

Staff reports

The Cobb Chamber named the 2015 Sam Olens Business Community Service Award winners on Monday at the December First Monday Breakfast Event, sponsored by Cobb Community Foundation and Metro Atlanta Ambulance Service. This year, the award program recognized all 10 businesses nominated as recipients for their contributions to Cobb's non-profit organizations.

Since the inception of this awards program, Georgia Trend magazine has served as its sponsor. Publisher and editor-in-chief Neely Young presented each winner with an award designed by Marietta Trophy.

Earlier this year, Cobb's nonprofit community was asked to nominate businesses that have enhanced the lives of all Cobb County residents through gifts of time, money and charitable donations.

The 2015 winners were: . ABRA Auto Body & Glass, nominated by TheCindy Donald Dreams of Recovery Foundation.

- . Batson-Cook, nominated by Loving Arms Cancer Outreach.
- . Cobb EMC, nominated by The Devereux Georgia Treatment Center.
- . Genuine Parts Company, nominated by The Center for Family Resources.
- . JE Dunn Construction, nominated by Orange Duffel Bag.
- . Marietta Pizza Company, nominated by St. Joseph Catholic School.
- . Prestigious Cleaning Team, nominated by Bullock Hope House.
- . S.A. White Oil Company, nominated by Simple Needs GA.
- . WellStar Cancer Services, nominated by American Cancer Society.
- . West Cobb Chiropractic, nominated by Calvary Children's Home.
